

The Five Restorative Questions

What happened?

What were you thinking and feeling at that time?

Who has been affected and how?

What do you need so that you can move on from this?

What plans need to be made to repair the harm caused and heal the relationships? Who will support this to happen?