Safeguarding – emergency contacts

In school we need to make sure we have at least three contact numbers for each child in case of emergency. Over the next few weeks Mrs Moore will be contacting you to check your emergency contact list is up to date. Thank you for your co-operation.

Online Safety - From Alan Mackenzie e-safety adviser

A message for parents/carers about gaming tips for neurodivergent children. Internet Matters have released another really useful guide. It's a simple 5-page guide covering the research, example games, some of the challenges which parent/carers face and the all-important benefits. Click on the link to view the guide. Internet Matters have done it again with an online safety checklist, this time with a really simple guide for parents/carers using Activate, Balance and Check. Use the ABC online safety checklist for parents | Internet Matters

Polling Day and New Chair of our School Council

This Friday is our polling day in school where the children elect the Chair and Vice-chair of the school council. Eight Year Six have given speeches in assembly and canvassed for votes. Good luck to all of them.

Celebrate

Please let us know if you would like to add your child's achievements to the newsletter. We would love to hear about them.
